Our Tramp Around the City!

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; with Black above—'twill WARMER grow. If Black's beneath—COLDER 'twill be; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

"What is a woman's weapon?" I asked a lover true; She dropped her lashes shyly, and then coquettishly murmured— "This rosebud newly cut; 'tis a woman's weapon; Her weapon is a pout."

"What is a woman's weapon?" I asked a lover true; He turned to his friend With eyes of heaven blue, and said— "I am a sport; All innocent of guile, And a woman's weapon; Her weapon is a smile."

"What is a woman's weapon?" I asked a poet true; He seized upon his pen, "Oh, I could name a thousand; 'tis a woman's weapon; But women's surest weapon, I grant you, is a tear."

LOVE FOR LENA

And a Deadly Bullet for the Girl's Father.

Tragic Deed of an Aged Soldier Who Wanted to Marry a Child.

The World—He Murders to marry. Two Years of Age and the Girl did Fifteen. The Shootist Makes His Es- cape and is Still Large.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 24.—A man 65 years old, at Edenfield, O., a nephew of Martin's Ferry, shot the father of a girl of 15 because he could not marry her. The name of the victim is Stephen Williams, an employee of the Eden mill. His assailant was Henry Morris, who had been after him for a year, and had not been captured up to a late hour.

Morris was in love with Lena Williams, daughter of the wounded man, but Williams objected to the marriage. Williams went over to see Morris, and the two men had a quarrel of some sort.

About 4:30 the report of a pistol was heard, and Mrs. Williams remarked to Jack Bunker, who was at her house at the time: "There, Morris has shot Mr. Williams." Bunker ran to the scene. Williams was found lying on the floor. An examination showed that the ball, of 22-caliber, fired from a single-barreled pistol, had struck him in the right side of the stomach, near the liver ribs. Immediately he died.

Perhaps this sentiment was never more aptly applied than in the present case. Hon. John W. Langley, now of the Board of Pension Appeals, Washington City, was one of the few Republican members of the Kentucky Legislature during the session of 1898-99.

Among the many measures before that body was one for the benefit of a railroad about to be built through Mr. Langley's section, and in which, very naturally and properly, he took an interest.

Soon after his enemies charged that he had been "influenced" to favor the measure, and some went so far as to say that that influence was in the nature of a bribe.

As may well be imagined, there were numerous Democratic papers to take up the cry, and however much Mr. Langley might deny the charges, his personal enemies and these papers persisted in their accusations.

Finally Mr. Langley chased the liar to his lair, and, most commendably, instituted suit against him for damages. The case has at last terminated in Mr. Langley's favor; and it is quite evident that he obtained a verdict of $1,000 damages.

A TRAGEDY.

Like the Deacon Case, Except a Woman Does the Work.

With Pistol She Rushes Upon Her Husband's New Love.

The First Five Shots at the Lawyer and then Stabs the Wounded Woman in the Breast—Frenzied Wife's Mad Revenge in Paris.

PARIS, May 9.—The wife of a well known club man has been for some time past suspected that her husband was carrying on a liaison with the wife of an Englishman. She had been watching him ever since her husband left the house Saturday night she harshly threw on her wraps and followed him. He entered a house in the Quartier L'Europe. His wife remained outside for some time, and then entered. She found the apartment of her husband and entered. The door of the room was locked, but the infuriated woman, threw herself against it and forced it open. Inside were her husband and the wife of the official. The evidence was clear. The woman, who had been a revolver in the pocket of her dress. Drawing her weapon she advanced upon the woman, who had crouched in abject fear in a corner of the room, and, deliberately aiming at her, fired. The bullet struck home. The wounded woman began to groan, to be prodded. But she struggled valiantly to be freed. And again did the revolver flash, until five bullets had taken effect.

During the shooting the husband, it is said, stepped forward to disarm his wife, but she turned on him, and threatened to kill him. He advanced another foot, and the people in the house rushed to the apartment, but 'none dared to place a hand upon the woman.

After the cartridges in the revolver were exhausted, the wife calmly awaited the coming of the police, who had been summoned. She then quietly signified her desire to be taken away from the place. The wounded woman died in a few hours.

The name of the murderer is Madame Reynaud, and that of her victim Madame Delaporte. The woman who murdered her was a niece of Jean Casimir-Périer. Madame Reynaud, who is a pretty blonde and only twenty-four years old, says that Madame Delaporte was an intimate friend of hers who had separated from her husband and had introduced Madame Delaporte to M. Reynaud, and soon afterward discovered that they were meeting secretly.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Howard & Co. had a lively day on the 21st, receiving tobacco.

A. R. Howard is going to the city this week on the tobacco market.

Some of the farmers are through setting tobacco; others have not commenced.

T. V. Chandler passed through this village on the 23d. Thomas surely means business.

Guthrie & Gault are busy packing their purchase of tobacco for the Cincinnati market.

Hubbard Evans has the foundation of his dwelling built on his property opposite the M. E. Church.

A. Howard & Co. have employed Mike Fritts of Ripley to inspect their tobacco before packing. Mr. Fritts is a good hand.

There was preaching at the M. E. Church on the 23d by the Pastor, Rev. Gideon Jolly. Sunday school every Sunday at 9 o'clock, preaching every other Sunday at 11 o'clock.

SHANON.

The corn in this locality is coming up well.

Born, to the wife of R. T. Maston, a fine son.

J. T. Reese is receiving his large purchase of tobacco.

There has been some tobacco set in this neighborhood.

Mrs. William Tuel has been very sick, but at this writing is convalescent.

G. G. Killpatrick, our clever butcher furnished this piece with beef once a week.

Alex. Watson & Son have commenced repairing their barn, which was unroofed by the storm of the 15th last.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Sue Wright was a success in every respect.

Several of the young ladies and gentlemen in the school district took part and made it interesting. We failed to mention Mr. Killpatrick, as he is a good actor. There were one hundred and fifty present. Some of the seats gave way and one-half the audience left before it was over.

The election at Orangeburg was a tame affair. The Mayville contingent with the "boddy" did not come in contact with a single Republican hustler.

There were quite a number of Alliance men that went back on their party at the polls. "Why that will be a vote against the Democratic party," was their startled exclamation.

The "six months in the county" clause of the new Constitution was very inconvenient for several of the Democratic friends who were very anxious to "down that G. A. R. man."

Thomas Holt, whose place of residence is somewhat uncertain, arrived on town on Saturday last by executing a regular war dance while on a "bum." The whoop was ear-piercing if not soul-inspiring.

Mrs. Hattie Trumbull of Sherburne is here on a visit to her father, H. B. Taylor.

Miss Charles Ann True of Dover is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. E. Bullock of this place.

A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

A Young Wife Sorely Distressed Over the Absence of Her Husband.

About five weeks ago a young man by the name of Edward Hughes and a Miss Harris of Winchester came down to Aberdeen and got married.

The couple on account of parental objection did not return home and secured rooms at the St. James Hotel in this city, where they have been ever since.

Yesterday morning Hughes left the hotel, telling his wife he was going out to buy a suit of clothes.

He has not been heard of since and his disappearance is a mystery.

His wife says he is in the habit of carrying considerable money around with him.

He is a horse trainer and driver by profession. He is in the habit of drinking some, but was perfectly sober when last seen. The young man is not yet of age.

The counting of the vote at the late election is in progress this morning at the County Clerk's office.

ASA THATCHER and Lucinda Sowers were arrested and placed in jail last night on a charge of adultery. They will be tried this afternoon before "Squire" Grant.

The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Fleming was largely attended at St. Patrick's Church this morning, many Protestants testifying their respect for the good woman.

At the meeting of Mayville Community last night a badge, silver badge was adopted as the official one to be worn by members on the pilgrimage to Denver, and other similar occasions.

The design is by Colonel Frank S. Owens, and it is both appropriate and elegant.

COT. W. B. BALDWIN left last night for Louisville as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Sheriff John W. Alexander, R. L. Lovell, James H. Salee and probably others will go to-day. Representative Frazee and Charles B. Poyntz will also be on hand.

Between eleven and twelve o'clock last night, Moses O'Brien, station agent of Springfield, was "held up" on the Second street extension by three negroes, and robbed of $8 and some "merchandise." Suspicions rest on certain parties as being the highwaymen, but no arrests have been made as yet.

THE Kenton and Campbell county delegations were solidly against the separate cash bill, though Messrs. Hissem and McInerney were the only ones in the House when a vote was taken. They both voted against it, and it is understood that the other members of each delegation were inclined the same way. Messrs. Hensley of Pendleton, Walton of Boone, and Dr. G. H. Dickson of Bourbon, Bailey of Carroll and Moore of Harrison voted for it. Mr. Fine of Bracken voted against it, and Dr. Frazee of this county voted for it.

The Telegraph on her next trip will have stacks of good music. She will have board on the Hartford City Brass Band of 18 pieces, and Prof. Lewis' orchestra of 7 pieces. The latter aggregation will continue on the boat during the summer season.

ALONZO GRAY, the fourteen-year-old son of George T. Gray a leading farmer of Lyon county, had climbed into a tree to rob a bird's nest, when the limb he was climbing suddenly broke, hurling him violently to the earth, a distance of over forty feet. He will not rob any more birds' nests this spring.
